July 2015

Dear Fripp Friends,

If you were one of those that attended the Wednesday vesper service hosting Rev. John Glover (yes – Candice’s Dad), then you know what great energy was present that evening. Kudos to our choir director and accompanist team of Alan and Hillary Lathan for inviting Rev. Glover and his congregation to attend the Fripp Island All-Faiths Chapel. It was a huge success ! The choir was superb as usual, and in spite of Rev. Glover’s nervousness, the congregation kept reassuring him with loud “Amen”s ! We need more ministers and evenings like that one !

What was even more astounding was the deeper sense of connection and community felt by having St. Helena congregants joining the regulars in prayer at vespers. In light of the events in Charleston recently, it is no coincidence that we at Fripp mirrored the same sense of Unity as the people of Charleston have been doing, by praying together as One. Both are great examples of how powerful community spirit and prayer can be. Come join us - and be part of a praying community.

Speaking of community - heard about Second Helpings? You did if you went to or heard about the recent Fripp Island Women's Club benefit for this charity. It is a local food distribution project that relies on volunteers in provided trucks picking up perishable food from stores, and delivering it to food pantries. To volunteer, see www.secondhelpingslc.org or call 843-689-3689. Or contact fellow Fripper, Rick Stein, at 908-635-1664 or rastein@outlook.com with questions.

Also, when you come to the Community Centre, pass by the Columbarium and see the new plaque honoring Alan Cooper mounted at its entrance – now the Alan M. Cooper Memorial Columbarium. And be sure to thank Rick Raible for his work as Columbarium Chair.

If you are renting your property, please remind your renters that the summer Bingo schedule is in full swing, with Fridays added to the regular Tuesdays. All are welcome ! Also let them know that the July 1st vesper service will have a patriotic theme – with the choir singing “Battle Hymn of the Republic”. Again – all are welcome.

As always, you’ll find all our info on our website - www.FrippICC.com . It contains a Calendar of Events, Board minutes, Monthly Newsletters, and other information about the Centre and Chapel.

Looking forward to spending quality time with our Fripp Community.
